I live in here so i could easily qualify France political regime as a fungus colony growing on a dead corpse. The 5th French banana Republic also work. You get dementia Biden in the US and we get gerontophilia Macron in here. This is the same globalist team behind the two of them.

As a response to No_Pretzel_Logic comment under :

You really have to be a fool to get a PCR test, even more if coerced. I knew about Kary Mullis tape since December 2020, by my own research. The PCR test creator himself, saying PCR isn't a reliable method to detect a disease that could hurt you. You tube made it disappear in an instant, google followed the lead, upgraded digital "damnatio memoriae". I tried to warn some of my people not taking these mRNA poison, i was labelled a conspiracy theorist and sadly failed to open their closed eyes. I do not care about it anymore. People who took these mRNA poison are as good as dead. Their immune system is now hijacked with spike protein. There is no cure and they will not make it on the long run.

I have never wear a mask outside, never made a single test, never will and surely won't take this mRNA so called "vaccines". I just wanted to be left the fvck alone and mind my own business but it will not be tolerated anymore, thanks to the WEF and their corporate/political minions. New law will ban me from restaurant, cinema, most shops? I am fine being an outcast with my immune system intact, the way nature gave it to me. You will need much more than this to break my free will.

When i drive to the french wallmart equivalent to buy groceries, it amaze me how the outside parking test tent get a lot of people waiting to get a "free" PCR test. Young children wearing mask up to their eyes in the summer. It saddens me to see people and parents so easily tricked into this mass hysteria, unknowingly hurting their siblings in numerous ways. I already tried to warn some, it is pointless. Covid became a Cult, the Covidian Cult. True believers will not change their mind.

Inside the mall, audio background always ordering you to follow the mask rules and other insanities. Outside, on the parking lot, there is a permanent feminine audio voice message in the background, telling you to wear this damn mask upside the nose and to be in this "together". We already live in an insane sanitary dystopia, an open air psychiatric ward, and most people seems to enjoy it. Most people have no dignity at all, they will accept anything for one lunch/beer at the restaurant/bar, including the social credit (health) score and mandatory vaccines. What is even the point living like a lab rat?

Expanding DNA database is probably a minor part of it. Still, not the main axiom which is coercion. To coerce people they will make them paid for their PCR tests and you will need to make one pretty much every 2 days with the "vaccine" digital passport. I absolutely hate coercion, it p*sses me of. I am just not brain wired as a submissive individual, never was and never will be. Lucky me, i only see ever evolving patterns intricated within each others.

I do not think our Elites Overlords are stupid. My guess is they fear to lose control of their fake narrative and made apparent their excessive hubris accelerating their great reset agenda through the sold out puppet Macron. Next step will probably be cyber attacks targeting the supply chain digital networks.

By the way, the next French State ID card (EU standard) will include a digital equivalent containing bio metrics such as fingerprints and facial markers.
